MEMORANDUM FOR: Dr. Henry A. Kissinger
Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

SUBJECT: Message from King Husayn

Set forth below is a message to you from King Husayn prepared following your meeting with him and his Political Advisor, Zayd Rifa'i, on 27 February 1973:

"Dear Dr. Kissinger,

"I wish to thank you once again for the great pleasure you gave me by meeting you today, and I look forward to a continuation of our dialogue and joint efforts to achieve our dear objective of an honorable, lasting peace in the Middle East. I do regret that I was unable, during our short meeting, to raise a subject of interest on which I would appreciate your views. It is regarding a possible course which, in my opinion, the US may find worth following to safeguard several vital points. My thoughts run along investigating the possibilities of setting up a multi-national Energy Commission which could arrive at long term arrangements of long duration with various oil producing countries in our area, thus helping to stabilize them and give them a degree of security and stability as far as their product's continuation is concerned, and perhaps eventually ensure that your own monetary problems are brought under control. If this line of thought is of interest, as I believe it to be, then I shall be happy to know your views and to be guided by them to contribute what I can towards their materialization.

"With my best personal wishes"
